

DENTURE QUESTIONNAIRE

NAME _____ DATE _____

What is your chief complaint?

What do you think is wrong with your denture(s)?

How many years have you worn dentures?

How many sets of dentures have you had made?

How long have you been wearing your present denture(s)?

Have your present denture(s) been relined?

Did you have success when you first wore your present denture(s)? Please explain.

Has your overall experience in wearing denture(s) been satisfactory or unsatisfactory?

Do you feel that new denture(s) should be made or that your present denture(s) should be relined?

If new denture(s) are made for you, what changes do you want?

All people do not have healthy or good ridges. Do you feel that your mouth and ridges are good or less good for wearing denture(s)? Please explain.

Some people learn faster than others to wear eyeglasses or contact lenses or to master the art of wearing denture(s). Do you feel that you have these natural abilities? Please explain.

How long were you without teeth before your first denture(s)?

Are you self-conscious about the appearance of your teeth in the presence of your loved ones or friends?

How do your loved ones or friends feel about the appearance of your denture?

What do you think your denture should do for you? (Please circle at least TWO)

- a. Remove wrinkles
- b. Improve comfort
- c. Improve speech
- d. Good fit
- e. Improve appearance
- f. Improve chewing

Do you know anyone who is happy with their complete denture?

What is your opinion about the quality of care provided to you by previous dentist?

- a. good
- b. fair
- c. poor
- d. indifferent

Do you have a stressful or relaxed job position? Please explain.

Do you consider yourself a rather nervous or tense person?

Oral habits: Do you sleep with denture(s) in your mouth?

Do you use denture adhesive (glue, powder, or cream)?

How often do you squeeze or grind your teeth together during the day?

Regarding your chewing ability: Are you able to eat with your front teeth? Are you able to eat steak or other hard foods?